

Declaration of Solidarity

March 17, 2017, San Jose, Costa Rica

We, parliamentarians of the Americas and the Caribbean present at the 2nd Gathering of the Open Parliament Network of ParlAmericas taking place in San Jose, Costa Rica, declare that we:

Extend our sincere sentiments of solidarity to the Peruvian people for the devastating human losses and numerous material damages caused by the strong rains, floods and landslides, especially in the northern region of the country.

Present our condolences and support in these difficult times and wish for the quick recovery of the victims and affected communities.

Call on governments of member countries to stand together and bring material support to the Republic of Peru.
